PALM SUNDAY/PASSION OF OUR LORD

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

Throughout the Gospels, we read of Jesus' concern for the sick. Read the following healing accounts from the Gospels of Mathew and Luke, then answer the questions below.

Mathew 8:5-13

Mathew 15: 21-28

Luke 5:12-16

Luke 5:17-26

- What types of ailments did Jesus heal?
- What was required in order for Jesus to heal a person?
- How were other people involved in these healing stories?

What Healing Ministry Did Jesus Leave the Church??

Healing was also essential to the mission of the apostles: "[Jesus] summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two.....They anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them" (Mark 6:7,13).

Palm Sunday Passion of the Lord

IS 50:4-7; PS 22:8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24; PHIL 2:6-11; MK 14:1-15:47

Today we celebrate Palm Sunday. As we read about the climax of Christ's mission here on earth, we are reminded that He is the Perfect Steward, a model for us all on our stewardship journey.

Our First Reading, from the prophet Isaiah, portrays a suffering servant. The suffering servant, in many ways, foreshadows what Jesus endured during His passion. Even though He didn't deserve such tortures, He humbly submitted to them. His mission as a steward was to fulfill His Father's mission. We, too, play a unique role in our Father's mission by bringing souls to Christ. It simply begins with the witness of our lives.

Today's Gospel shares the account of Jesus' last days on earth, and how He lives them says a great deal about how we should be living ours as faithful stewards. Jesus does many things in these last days, and they all revolve around prayer and service — two trademark actions of a good and faithful Catholic. He hosts a Passover meal in which He gives us His Body and Blood in the Eucharist. He intensely prays to His Father. Lastly, He submits to humiliation, torture and death for our sake, calling out to God the Father in His weakest moments. We might not be called to the same type of prayer and service, but we are all called to commit time in daily prayer with our Lord, and to serve our families, churches and neighbors.

As we embark on this Holy week, let us take some time to reflect on the life of Christ as He is our model Steward, and may we strive to imitate Him daily.
